The Stock Market Opened Strong on the Feeling in London - Railway Bonds Somewhat Dull-A Rumor About the Lead Trust-Market Features.

Special to the Gazette. New York, May 21.—To-day's stock mar-ket opened strong on better feeling in Lon-don and here but prices fell off later in ex-pectation of further gold orders for Satur-day's steamships. The only engagement reported up to 1 o'clock was that of $500,000 ordered in Boston Delegan were gonordered in Boston. Prices were gen-erally below yesterday's closing in the norning and early afternoon. Railway bonds were generally dull. GOVERNMENTS, STOCKS AND BONDS.

NEW YORK, May 21.—The temper of the stock market to-day was rather reactionary; but there was a lack of life in dealing. The general list, however, still suffered from the waiting attitude of those which might have wring to the meaniling. which might buy, owing to the prevailing uncertainty in regard to the future of the money market. Concessions from best prices, however, were very material in leading stocks, St. Paul and Union Pacific yielding most readily and showing the most animation. The market closed quiet but firm, at fractional improvements from the lowest figures. Final losses are generally confined to fractions. Railroad bonds sluggish.

Waco Business Men Take to a Stranger With Bad Results-On the Ocean.

Special to the Gazette. Waco, Tex., May 21.—A week ago a man who registered as George Whitfield, To-ronto, Canada, arrived here and spent sev-eral days. He spoke of his possessions in Canada, claiming a newspaper and considerable land. He engaged agents to repre-sent him, and loaned his surplus cash. During his rounds he had cashed various checks on the National Bank of Commerce of Toronto. He left suddenly, and tele-graphic communication from Canada styled him a professional dead beat. Among the Mills.

The Boston Commercial Bulletin says: "Our manufacturing columns this week contain the record of a large number of changes in the cotton mills; new mills, ad-ditions to plants, hitherto silent machinery starting up, etc. Four new cotton mills are reported; additions will be made to five plants and three factories that have been shut down will be started up. The goods situation continues favorable and machinery is well employed. In the woolen manufacturing industry there is prosperity. This week we report seven new mills to be erected and improvements to be made to three established plants. Judging from the record of new mills and of additions, the knit goods and hosiery business must be in very good shape.

The shoe manufacturing business con tinues much depressed, though there is a fair amount of machinery in motion. In some of the small towns in New Hampshire business is better, and some factories that had been shut down have been started up. There are not many new shoe factories to report, though we learn of several changes to be made in the location of New England firms. The glass situation continues to im-prove and prices are being fived up to. New sites are also in demand and new works are sites are also in demand and new works are being built. Eight new factories will be built in different sections of the country.

"The record of new paper mills is not a long one, but in view of the large number of mills already in the field it is better that not so many new factories should be built. There is more or less building in progress, however, and two new pulp and paper mills were reported this week."

Foreign Refined Sugar.

A New York exchange of recent date says: "A report has been published to the effect that Scotch refiners are unable to cope with the urgent orders for sugars from America. It looks, however, as though they might be able to catch up pretty soon, as the market here is not only unpropitious, but it is understood that some holders of even the comparatively small quantities here would be very glad to re-ceive orders to send them back. There is one grade here, grayish in appearance and of good flavor, that seems to be just inside No. 16 D. S. in color, and meets with very rotate the property of the property of the favor, but the bright yellows, to which we have before referred, do not seem to 'take' rapidly. These goods have been selling at from 31/2c down to 31/2c and 31/2c, and possibly further shadings might be made to quick customers, but there does not appear to be enough difference in price, as compared with granulated, to catch the consumer for household use, and manufact-urers are indifferent. Of English granulated, offerings have been making 4@4%c quality apparently all right, but buyers, for some reason, are offish, and as none of the above rates afford a profitable margin, importers are not happy.
